

CURRICULUM VITAE - ASIMINA CHRISTOFOROU

EDUCATION

(2001- ): candidate for Doctor in Philosophy Degree at the Department of International and European Economic Studies of the Athens University of Economics and Business.

(1997-1998): MSc from the Department of International and European Economic Studies of the Athens University of Economics and Business

(1992-1996): BA from the Department of International and European Economic Studies of the Athens University of Economics and Business.

SCHOLARSHIPS / AWARDS

A scholarship from the Ministry of Education has been granted for postgraduate research. It is realized as an act of the “Hrakteitos” research funds (EPEAEK II), which is co-financed by the European Union.

EMPLOYMENT / WORKING EXPERIENCE

Has worked for two consecutive years (1999-2000) for non-profit research organizations, where she was responsible for the research and management of research projects financed by Hellenic public institutions as well as the European Union. Research mostly centered on education and training, innovation and technology, regional development, economic growth, inequality, science and innovation-related knowledge in the formation of corporate technological strategies and research joint ventures in support of European industry.